

Joe Romesberg-Organist

We are delighted to introduce our church organist Joe Romesberg. Joe Studied piano with Ruth Rosenberger, Meyersdale, 1968-1971 He also studied pipe organ at Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, Meyersdale, with Ruth Rosenberger, 1971-1974 and he continued his studies of pipe organ technique at Frostburg State College, 1976, with Dr.Rita Babbit.

Joe has served as our organist at Amity United Church of Christ, from July, 1983 to present. Answering the need of Amity, Joe served as interim choir director, 1991-1999 until the return of Paula Krecthman to that position in 1999 and returned to serving as organist and began as assistant to music the director and has been a member of Amity since May, 2008

In a major undertaking at Amity Joe assisted in designing and rebuilding of the church pipe organ in 1995, under the direction of H. Preston Showman, of Pittsburgh.

Joe also works with his father Fred Romesberg, church sexton, in the maintenance and housekeeping of the church.